Joint Construction

Situation 1

- Mr. Hans is going to play in a concert next month.
- He tells his friend about it.

What does he say?

Situation 2

- Ms Vina is going to a national seminar in Bali for three days.
- She tells her friends about it.

What does she say?

FUTURE “WILL” OR “GOING TO”

When we want to talk about future facts or things we believe to be true about the future, we use 'will'.

- The President will serve for four years.
- The boss won't be very happy.
- I'm sure you'll like her.
- I'm certain he'll do a good job.

If we are not so certain about the future, we use 'will' with expressions such as 'probably', 'possibly', 'I think', 'I hope'.

- I hope you'll visit me in my home one day.
- She'll probably be a great success.
- I'll possibly come but I may not get back in time.
- I think we'll get on well.

We use 'going to' when we want to talk about a plan for the future.

- I'm going to see him later today.
- They're going to launch it next month.
- We're going to have lunch first.
- She's going to see what she can do.
- I'm not going to talk for very long.

We can replace 'going to go' by 'going'.

- I'm going out later.
- She's going to the exhibition tomorrow.

If you are making a future prediction based on evidence in the present situation, use 'going to'.

- Not a cloud in the sky. It's going to be another warm day.
- Look at the queue. We're not going to get in for hours.
- The traffic is terrible. We're going to miss our flight.
- Be careful! You're going to spill your coffee.

At the moment of making a decision, use 'will'. Once you have made the decision, talk about it using 'going to'.

- I'll call Jenny to let her know. Sarah, I need Jenny's number. I'm going to call her about the meeting.

- I'll come and have a drink with you but I must let Harry know. Harry, I'm going to have a drink with Simon.

UNIT 8

COMMANDING and REQUESTING

Expressions

A : Could you do me a favour?

B : Sure. You name it.

A : Could you do some shopping?

B : Fine. Tell me what you need.

A : Buy some snacks.

B : Such as?

A : Well, get some chips and cheese.

B : Okay. I'm leaving now.

A : Hang on. Don't go just yet.

B : What is it?

A : Buy some milk too. And one more thing; buy me some sweets, please.
But don't buy any chocolates.

Head to head Pairs

A : Could you do me a favour?

B : Sure.

A : Would you like to go to the store and buy some stationary for me?

B : Such as?

A : No making any noise.

B : I won't.

A : Only buy snowman pens.

B : What colour?

Interaction Model

A : Hey Mark, could you do me a favour?

B : Sure, what is it?

A : Could you go to the store and buy some stationary?

B : Such as?

A : I need to buy some pencils, pens and paper.

B : Anything else?

A : Oh, don't buy HB pencils and only buy black pens.

B : You got it!
